“ I was lucky to have worked with Barb at the Cortland Health Center. She had a great laugh and was a joy to work with. She loved her family dearly and was always telling stories about them and so proud of her grandchildren. I treasure the time I spent with her. She was one in a million.

“ In 1954 Barb and I spent a weekend in NYC. It was a great trip via Greyhound bus and stayed at a hotel in mid Manhattan. We saw a live tv show, went to some great restaurants, a Broadway musical plus the typical sights. We were so proud that we accomplished this and felt very independent at the age of 18! I had been to NYC once before and Barb never! She first arrived in Cortland with a very definite "accent" and I teased her about it. She was always sunny, friendly, humorous and just loved being with her. She was a treasured friend - Pat Purser Vavonese

“ My mom and Barbara were best of friends for my entire life, and even before that. I never knew until now though, that she was also from Brooklyn. Barb had a big heart and she was always fun. She will live on in my memory in a very special way. Love and condolences to the family from Terry (Streaman) Pabon.
