“ I have so many great memories of Diane. She was best friends with my mom, Lou Nutting, and my dad. Fondly referred to as Tommy Nut.

We laughed a lot on many wine tours, at Christmas time, and wherever we were. I remember her mostly from the Tops crew but also as time went on she became an unofficial member of our family.

Diane was a great lady and will be sorely missed. She always spoke of 'her boys' and she treated my two boys as if they were her own.

My thoughts are with her entire family. Take comfort in knowing Diane touched many lives!

“ Thanks for the many Memories-never will forget when we saw Cher in concert and David Copperfield's facial expression when you had him autograph your purse. So thankful and blessed that you are Kyle's Grandma Pal. Rest in Peace-Forever in my heart-I love you-Laurie “ Rest in peace Diane. I'm sure Renee and Uncle Ron and Aunt Eileen are happy to see you.

Sympathies to your sons, who I have not seen since they were little boys.
