“ So sorry for your loss. My fondest memories are of your Marian bouncing my children as babies on her lap and doing "Hump-Doo" or singing Edelweiss to them on the porch of the house she rented in the summer with my Aunt Marian and Uncle Dusty Rhoades. Over the last few years I would join Marian and Joanne Snyder for lunch at the Cascade Resturant every August 19th to celebrate the birthday of my Aunt Marian. Great memories and many good times.
