“ I will miss Rick. I have known him since he came to Cortland and shared many joys and sorrows. One special thing he did, when my husband was diagnosed with cancer, was give me a token that someone had given him when he was diagnosed with cancer, a symbol of hope and healing. We also had a common friend, Steve, that we picked a tree out for when he died. That tree was planted where Rick lived as a reminder of the "family" the guys there had become. He will be missed.
