

Dr. Joseph W. Brownell

May 25, 1927 - December 8, 2019

Dr. Joseph W. Brownell, retired professor of Geography and Cartography at SUNY Cortland, passed away on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2019 at Guthrie-Cortland Nursing and Rehabilitation Center at the age of 92. He had been recovering from hip surgery following a recent fall.

He was born to Roland and Catherine (Griffin) Brownell on May 25, 1927 in New Bremen, N.Y. Dr. Brownell married Kathryn Emerson in 1955 and together they raised three children.

Dr. Brownell was a graduate of Syracuse University and was a member of the SUNY Cortland faculty for more than half a century. He was a professor of geography from 1956 until his retirement in 2001, but continued teaching part-time for many more years. He served as chair of the geography department for several years. At the time of his retirement, he was the most senior faculty member in the college's history.

Dr. Brownell also taught at the University of Alberta and the University of Manitoba while on sabbaticals in the 1950s and 1960s.

An accomplished author, Dr. Brownell wrote "Adirondack Tragedy: The Gillette Murder Case of 1906" (with Patricia W. Enos), and a followup book, "Cortland to the Adirondacks: A Fateful Journey in 1906." He was considered a leading authority on the subject and lectured extensively. He also wrote a novel, "The Albany Road: A Boy, the Adirondacks and War,” and a short story, “Ticker, The Timid Star.” He also published several geography reports and written family histories.

As the son of a CCC Camp Superintendent, Dr. Brownell grew up living in a different community every year, moving as far south as Virginia. He never attended the same school for consecutive years until he was in high school.

Dr. Brownell was a historian and loved researching. He had an amazing capacity for detail and he once traveled to Detroit to take a picture of a headstone in a cemetery.

Dr. Brownell traveled extensively through Europe, the United States and Canada. Every summer he packed his family of 5 into a VW Beetle and travel to someplace new, usually a location of historical or educational significance.

Dr. Brownell was a HAM radio operator (W2BSI), photographer (the downstairs bathroom was a dark room for several years), stamp collector, coin collector and genealogist. For several years he drew political cartoons for the Cortland Standard under the pseudonym Cecil Harford. Dr. Brownell was also an actor who loved performing with campus or community theater groups.

Dr. Brownell served in the U.S. Navy during both World War II and the Korean War. He was a humble man who often deflected gratitude expressed by others for his service because he did not serve in combat.

He was the epitome of kindness and patience. He loved teaching and stayed in contact with many of his former students. He was proud of his Irish heritage and loved listening to Irish folk songs and watching Irish dance and music performances.

Dr. Brownell's survivors include a son, Greg Brownell of Queensbury, N.Y., daughters Linda Brownell (Charles) Glover of Marathon, N.Y., daughter Sharon Brownell (Jon) Redfield of Fredonia, N.Y., grandsons Sean, Jacob and Kevin Redfield of Fredonia, N.Y., step-grandchildren Brooke Glover of Marathon, N.Y., and Kaitlyn Glover of Cortland, N.Y., and step-great grandchild Trevor Howe of Cortland, N.Y. He was predeceased by his wife, Kathryn Emerson Brownell, and a brother, John R. Brownell.

Funeral services will be conducted on Saturday, Dec. 21, 2019 at 10 a.m. at Grace Holy Spirit Church, Court St., Cortland, N.Y., Rev. Peter Williams officiating, with a luncheon afterward. The family will be present to receive friends on Friday Dec. 20, 2019 from 4-6 p.m. from the Chapel of Riccardi Funeral Home 69 N. Main St. Cortland, N.Y. 13045.

Those wishing to honor Joseph's life are encouraged to donate to the Cortland County Historical Society. Alternatively, please consider performing acts of kindness and giving back to your community in ways such as donating blood and/or plasma, exercising your right and responsibility to vote, mentoring children, volunteering, shopping at independent small businesses, adopting from shelters or simply buying a cup of coffee for the next person in line.

The family would like to thank Walden Place for their kindness and support and for promoting the dignity and independence of all the people who have made their home there; Grace Holy Spirit Church for being an extension of his family; the Cortland County Historical Society for their enthusiastic support of Dad's projects.

“ Joe Brownell

Joe Brownell has been a part of my life since I was a small child. Mom and Dad would bring us to the Griffin homestead each year to celebrate Uncle Will's birthday. These family gatherings gave me a sense of the closeness and rich history of our extended family. As I grew up, I had the opportunity to walk and talk with Joe around the family homestead on the hill. He enriched my life and I will miss him.

“ Greg,Linda and Sharon,
I'm so sorry to hear of your dad's passing. He was such a wonderful man. I spent so much of my childhood at the Brownells. I loved walking into the house and seeing all of his radio equipment. I lived right across the street so sometimes at night sharon and I would talk to each other from our bedroom windows, one night sharon said what time is it and all the sudden we heard joe say in a loud voice IT'S TIME FOR BED. I remember that night so clearly. Thinking of all of you. Love Laura Rood (Moffitt)

“ It was a pleasure to get to know Dr. Brownell in class in 1986. The class was Travel & Tourism and it was so much fun. Dr. Brownell was exceptional. He was the epitome of a scholar and a gentleman. Indeed he was one of my favorite professors largely due to his genuine warmth and humility. And his wife Kathryn was delightful as well! (Perhaps I'm remembering incorrectly, but think I was encouraged to call her Kay.) Several of us were invited to their home at Christmas and for years after Dr. and Mrs. Brownell and my family exchanged Christmas cards. All from one class. My heartfelt condolences to the family and his close friends. Although this is a sad time, you have been blessed with many wonderful years with a lovely man and his lovely wife. May the Lord give you comfort, peace and strength.

“ Dr. Brownell was the dearest human being - full of passion, interest, and adventure. In a huge lecture hall full of students, he held interest. His book on the Gillette case clearly was a legacy - and I am now regretting not getting a signed copy as a memory to pass on to my daughter. I will miss you Dr. Brownell - your steady presence and faithful Christmas note. It was my blessing to know you. I am glad I sat in the first row!

““May the angels / come to greet you. / May they lead you to paradise.””

These priceless images merely scratch the surface of the many, many facets of a cherished friend to the community--and by that I mean the community of the world at large, because it takes a village. And Joe made the world his village. Joe had many, many faces and facets, but I will remember him best (a) making plans for his next imprint, next edition, next publication, next collaboration, next research idea and (b) indelibly portraying geologist Professor Willard in the most recent production of Thornton Wilder's OUR TOWN in Karen's Room at the Center for the Arts of Homer.

I'd like to think that Joe would urge you to go back and re-read that script or to make plans to see the next production somewhere, anywhere in the world.

He dropped many pebbles in a quiet pool and the ripples will go on and on and on and on and on and on and

Sending much love and gratitude for a life well lived,

“ Dear Greg, Linda & Sharon, My thoughts & prayers are with you all in this difficult time, but we must all admit he had a great and full life. I am now the only living descendant of the William Griffin family. Memories of my cousin are many...mostly in childhood as he was 10 years older. We grew up "on the hill", Griffin homestead & spent many hours playing together. As he had no sisters, he was my "big brother". As a teenager, I remember spending time with him in his little radio room on W2BSI. I was totally amazed that we could talk to anyone in the world!. Remember the good times !!! It will ease the pain.

“ My condolences to the Brownell family. Dr. Brownell was a scholar, gentleman and a great storyteller. His Cultural Geography class in the spring semester of my freshman year at Cortland inspired me to become a geography major. I am also grateful to him for "going easy" on me when I took his Cartography class. He was one of the reasons why Cortland was a great school to attend in the late 1960s. He will be missed.
