“ Though I worked with her dad, Jerry, many years ago, she always took the time to stop and visit with me, when we would run into one another downtown. She also was always gracious and helpful, in her role at Access to Independence. My sincere sorrow at her passing... Tony Raggi formerly of Catholic Charitie.

“ Karen will be missed for her beautiful heart and soul. She and I shared a love of reading and fantasy. We played many games through the years and shared many conversations on the books we shared a love for. I will forever miss her witty sense of humor and love for all things fantastical!

May her family find comfort in knowing that Karen lived a life with love and compassion for everyone she knew or met.

I pray that a of Karen's dreams and fantasies are a reality for her now.
