“ It was a blessing to work with Mary and have the opportunity to get to know her. She was incredibly kind and had a lively sense of humor. Mary was a rare individual who never spoke ill of anyone and never complained. I enjoyed talking to her about raising a family and hearing her wisdom. Mary was a wonderful role model and a true friend. My deepest sympathy to her loved ones.

“ My husband's brother James Haskell passed away in March and while checking condolences I noted Mary's picture. I was lucky enough to run in to Mary last Summer. I recognized her and she recognized me. She knew my parents, Leona and Gene Farron. We talked about the old neighborhood, school and all of the people we knew who had passed away. I began to wonder if she really knew who I was or just knew I was a Farron. She said, "You were a cute little thing, always so busy, Talkative and you liked to sing. I think you were in Paul's class." Yup she knew me! She always had a smile for me and I enjoyed seeing her at the store. She was a beautiful lady with a good heart and she was kind. I am glad I ran into her and we had a memorable conversation. Into paradise may the angels lead you. Until we meet again, God bless you. Theresa
