“ Ms. Gilles was an important teacher for me, and I appreciated her even more as I grew older. Numerous times I have uttered her phrase, "Raise the Level!" in an attempt to guide my children's perspective. She introduced me to the author Willa Cather, who is still a favorite for me. Ms. Gilles affected many lives.

“ Miss Gilles was a role model for students and in her later years. She was always aware of world and local events, always interested in what others were doing, always traveling and learning new things. She took full advantage of her ninety years and influenced so many - me included - with the dignity and energy with which she lived her life. May she rest in peace.

“ Sweet Mary, she often traveled and so it was not unusual for her to miss Mass for long periods, but the long stretch was enough for me to check on line. I pray for her immortal soul. She loved the Latin Mass and drove to Syracuse to attend it. Feisty and quick to smile she will be sorely missed. I will pass the news on to others who will raise their prayers and shed their tears. May she rest in peace.
