“ *We grow up together since childhood ,play soccer and basketball in the same team
,he was one of warm hearted person that I know ,we lost contact after I moved to ca in 1980
But we talked often on the phone ,he was always worry about my health even he was fighting his own
Last time I talk to him, he was in the hospital and he was still worry about me
My condolences to Linda his wife and all his family and friend
Rest in peace*

“ I will never forget the kindness that Masoud and his family showed to my son at West Point and to my entire family whenever we visited. The tailgate parties, Army-Navy games, and hospitality whenever we were together will always be treasured by me. His generosity and his positive attitude which he shared with the West Point cadets were signs of his love and patriotism and will not be forgotten by the many people he touched.
