“ I will always remember you from growing up together. You lived around the corner from my parents house on Madison Street. Every time we would run into each other before I moved we always found time to talk and to catch up on our busy lives. Condolences to your family and I know I will miss you ..

“ So sorry to hear of Nick's passing. He phoned me not long after my sister passed. A nice conversation and I thought his health was improving! What a genuine kind man he was!

“ My condolences to Nicholas' family. My Dad (David C. Allen) was his cousin, and Arthur C. (my Grandfather) was Charles' brother. There were four brothers (Paul, Charles, George, and Arthur). I got to know my grandfather (who lived in Cortland) and George (who lived in Branchport, NY). Sally Allen told me about our family tree and its whereabouts, but she passed earlier this January. I'm going to start our family research. This is something I've always wanted to do after Dad passed away in October '01. Life is a journey, and our Fathers had the greatest:)

“ I am sorry to learn of his passing. He and my sister, Linda Farron, were good friends and I have movies of Nicky and she when they went to her prom. He was always friendly and polite. He had the nicest smile. God bless you, until we meet again. Theresa
