

Mr. Philip Cosimo Jr.

August 19, 1947 - March 12, 2019

Philip Cosimo, Jr. of Cortland passed away unexpectedly on March 12, 2019 at home. He was born August 19, 1947 in Cortland the only son of the late Philip Cosimo, Sr. And Elizabeth Gattola Cosimo.

“Pudge” as he was affectionately called by family and friends, was a lifelong resident of Cortland. He was a 1965 graduate of Cortland High School. Although he worked various jobs throughout his life, his main passion was music. In his younger years he played guitar and drums in local bands and taught guitar.

“Pudge” is survived by his sisters and brothers-in-law; Marlene and Bradley Brown of Cortland and Lisa and Kevin Caughey of Cobleskill. He is also survived by his nieces and nephews; Sarah Caughey (Matthew Ege), Remy Brown (Stephen Kearney) Keefe Brown and Corey Caughey, his great nieces; Jenicah Brown, Jamyson Kearney and Kenzley Kearney.

The family would like to thank Serina Ingrahm, his long time care aide for all she did for him over the years to help him improve his quality of life. We are forever grateful.

A graveside service at St. Mary’s Cemetery will be held at a later date. There are no calling hours. Arrangements are under the direction of Riccardi Funeral Home Cortland, N.Y. www.riccardifuneralhome.com

“ Lisa, I'm so sorry to learn of Pudge's passing and pray his transition from this life to the next was gentle. May your fond memories bring comfort and smiles amid the tears. He has left his imprint on those who knew him and he will live on in our hearts. Thinking of the whole family with love. ❤️

“ The memories I hold closest are of Christmastime at grandma and grandpa Cosimo's when we were all together. Listening to stories of when uncle Pudge, mom and Aunt Marlene were growing up. Rest In Peace "Uncle Pudge," I know you're in a better place now. We miss and love you
