“ A Sad Day. I am so very sorry to read of Dick's passing. I worked for Dick in the late 1970's. He was always cheerful and kind. I'm still grateful to him for hiring me. It was always a pleasure to see him. He was always the same cheerful guy.

My most sincere condolences go to Brenda and the DeRusso family.

“ I've been friends with Dina since we were kids, and Mr.DeRusso always treated me with the utmost kindness, compassion, and respect - even when I didn't deserve it. Especially then, really. He was one of the very best humans I've ever had the pleasure of knowing. He will be greatly missed. My sincerest condolences to his family and friends.

“ I would like to add that Dick was valedictorian of his high school, and was only 9 hours short of getting his masters degree from Syracuse. He had a love of learning and an insatiable curiosity about the world. He did get to visit an archaeological site while he was serving in Libya. He was also a very dedicated father and family leader. As his younger brother, I will always look up to him. I am sure that the peace of our Lord is with him! ”
