“ I am saddened by the loss of my cousin, Rosalie, but I feel at peace as I hold on to the memories of the love we shared. The summer vacations she spent with our family were wonderful. I was honored and humbled when Rosalie asked me to sing for her wedding. My husband, Henry, and I had a wonderful visit with Rosalie just a few months ago. Our last visit was two days before she passed away. I am comforted to know that she knew we were there. Her kindness and gentleness will be remembered by all. She's at peace with the Lord.
