“ I will never forget you, Sue. You opened your door to me when I moved into my grandparents house next door in 1984. The kindness you displayed to everyone will long be remembered. It is often said that a good life is measured by the number of friends you have. You had dozens upon dozens and they all loved to stop and see you. I pray your heart is full as you return to your loving husband, Don. We will all miss you. May God Bless you and your family.

“ I loved Susie! She was the most friendly caring lady I've ever had the fortune to know. And all she did for the ladies in the nursing home. One special thing many of the ladies looked forward to. RIP Susie!! Wish I had been able to see you one more time.
